

Banting Legacy Week

FIGHTING DIABETES and PRESERVING A LEGACY

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9 - SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 2015

The Sir Frederick Banting Legacy Foundation invites the community to celebrate Banting Legacy Week November 9 - 14, 2015

Community Events at the Banting Homestead Heritage Park, Diabetes Management and Education Centre
5116 Sir Frederick Banting Road, Alliston

Monday, Nov 9 – Official flag raising and proclamation - 1pm

Tuesday, Nov 10 – Public Open Hours - 11am - 4pm

Wednesday, Nov 11 – Tours available by appointment - 11am - 4pm

Friday, Nov 13 – Tours available by appointment - 11am - 4pm

Saturday, Nov 14 – World Diabetes Day; Celebrate Banting's birthday; Walk the Legacy Trail; View the exhibits; Take the 'Big Blue' glucose test; Get informed - 12pm - 3pm

Community Events at the Gibson Centre, 63 Tupper Street, West, Alliston

Thursday, Nov 12 – 4th Annual Banting Legacy Lecture - 9am - 10am

Youth, Mental Health & Diabetes - Gaps and Implications

Dr. Margaret Hahn, MD, PhD, FRCPC

Dr. Hahn is an Assistant Professor in the Dept of Psychiatry, U of T; co-leader of the Mental Health and Metabolic Clinic at the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH); and a member of the Banting & Best Diabetes Centre, U of T.

Saturday, Nov 14 – 'Go Blue for Breakfast' – 9am – 11am

Celebrate World Diabetes Day and the "Healthy Eating and Diabetes" 2014-16 world campaign

Tickets $5.00/person; available at Banting Homestead Heritage Park and

The Gibson Centre (must be purchased in advance by November 6)

For more information or to book a tour please contact:

bantinglegacy@hotmail.com or telephone: 705-435-0111

2015 Banting Legacy Week Celebration – 94th Anniversary of the Discovery of Insulin